“Alleluia!”

Traditionally, beginning on the first day of Lent, Ash Wednesday—many mainline churches, including ZLC cease singing “alleluias” in worship. WHY? Because Lent is a church season in which we Christians reflect on the suffering of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and the cost involved to save us sinners from Hell. Lent is not a celebration season—it’s a season of deep contemplation—therefore the “alleluias” in worship are buried for a time as a part of the Lenten fast.

The actual burial of the church “alleluias” during Lent began as an old French Christian tradition in the twelfth century when a hole was dug near the church (probably the church cemetery), and the “alleluias” from the song books were literally buried. For the next forty days, the “alleluias” lay silent in the ground. But come Easter morning, the service began with the unearthing of the “alleluias” and brought into the sanctuary where the congregation joyfully raised the roof in bringing them back into worship!

There is another example of treats and candy being secretly buried with the “alleluias” so that when the “alleluias” are taken from the ground on Easter morn, the candy and treats are shared as part of bringing the joy and celebration back into our lives! Ah, the secret of Easter is that our Great Alleluia—Jesus Christ-- was dead and buried in the tomb, but the Easter surprise is that He too was taken up from the grave along with the joy and celebration of the sweet news that because He conquered death and lives, that we have forgiveness of sins, new life now, and eternal life to come.

The Holy Week and Easter invitation for each of us is to experience this death and resurrection firsthand by walking through what is left of Lent midweek services, then Maundy Thursday, and Good Friday to arrive at Easter Sunday whereby God might raise up in you the dead places that need resurrection—our failures, hurts, grief, denials, fears, and anxieties. Make Maundy Thursday and Good Friday a priority for you to be in worship, so that as our sin goes down with Him in betrayal, denial, and death-- we maybe raised up on Easter to not only sing “alleluias” in church, but in our daily lives as well!

Amen? Amen!

Council Corner

April 2026

April... Spring is about new life, awakening, and renewed faith. And always we should remember to be thankful for the mighty sacrifice and triumphant resurrection of Jesus. 2 Corinthians 9:15 says “Thanks be to God for this indescribable gift.” And the renewal of faith with the triumph of the resurrection. 1 Corinthians 15:57 declares “But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.”

I see so much hope and promise in Zion this Lent and Easter season. My own faith is renewed by this wonderful congregation, the Council, and the staff. And the hardworking call committee! So much steadfastness and faithfulness. Some of the faithful are fierce and out front, pulling and pushing and working tirelessly, bringing everyone around them along. Others are quietly, gently moving along, always moving forward, making the way smoother for everyone around them. And some are a strong presence, standing firmly, showing up, a steady show of support.

Remember the sacrifice as Lent comes to a close. Prepare for the indescribable joy of Easter and the Resurrection.

1 Peter 1:3-6 “Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In His great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil, or fade. This inheritance is kept in heaven for you, who through faith are shielded by God’s power until the coming of the salvation that is ready to be revealed in the last time. In all this you greatly rejoice, though now, for a little while, you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials.”

In His service,

Leslie North
Council President

Worship & Music Notes

Judy Johnson

Do you ever get a song stuck in your head and it lingers for days? My choir members can attest to that! Well, put your song knowledge to work as you try to find 35 titles below:

When in Our Music God Is Glorified

As the season of Lent continues into Holy Week, day by day we bow down beneath the cross of Jesus to give thanks for his amazing grace and arms of love, outstretched for us. Isn't he more precious than silver – our beautiful savior, who willingly put aside his majesty and his life to lay it down in payment of our sin debt?

Let the whole creation cry, "Hosanna!" because he is worthy to be praised, and he is able to cleanse us from all unrighteousness, making us white as snow in God's eyes. He deserves praise and thanksgiving, all glory, laud and honor!

And when Easter comes....my Lord, what a morning! Good Christian friends, rejoice and sing because he lives! Now we join in celebration of his victory; let all things now living cry, "Jesus Christ is risen today!"

Prayer for Easter

Dear Jesus, priceless treasure, you are my all in all. You are the reason that I breathe. I give you my heart, my life, and my praise. I could sing of your love forever! Thank you for the blessed assurance of that amazing love. To God be the glory!
Amen!

Thanks to all the midweek Lenten service speakers and the musicians who led the music.

Thanks to the pastors who led worship on Sundays when Pastor Bobby was away.

We appreciate all of you!

Have a very blessed Easter from your Worship & Music staff!

Director of Mission Growth

Too Good to Keep Locked Up

It has been more than a decade since I pastored a church and experienced the special blessing it is to lead a community of faith in the Resurrection celebration on Easter morning. If you are a pastor, then you likely know what I mean. I remember fondly the anxious anticipation for crowds of people to gather and worship the risen Lord. As many pastors do, on Saturday night I would sit alone in an empty sanctuary and pray for God to fill the church and bring together those who needed to hear the Easter story anew. Sunday dawn would rise and with it, excitement as the church filled with all the familiar faces and many new ones, too. The greetings would ring out: "Christ is Risen! – He is risen indeed! Alleluia!" Easter lilies adorned the sanctuary and special music triumphantly proclaimed God's glory. For those of us entrusted to preach, it is a special privilege to share the greatest story ever told to a full room of eager listeners. All around the church on Easter Sunday there is a joy that is so powerful and uplifting.

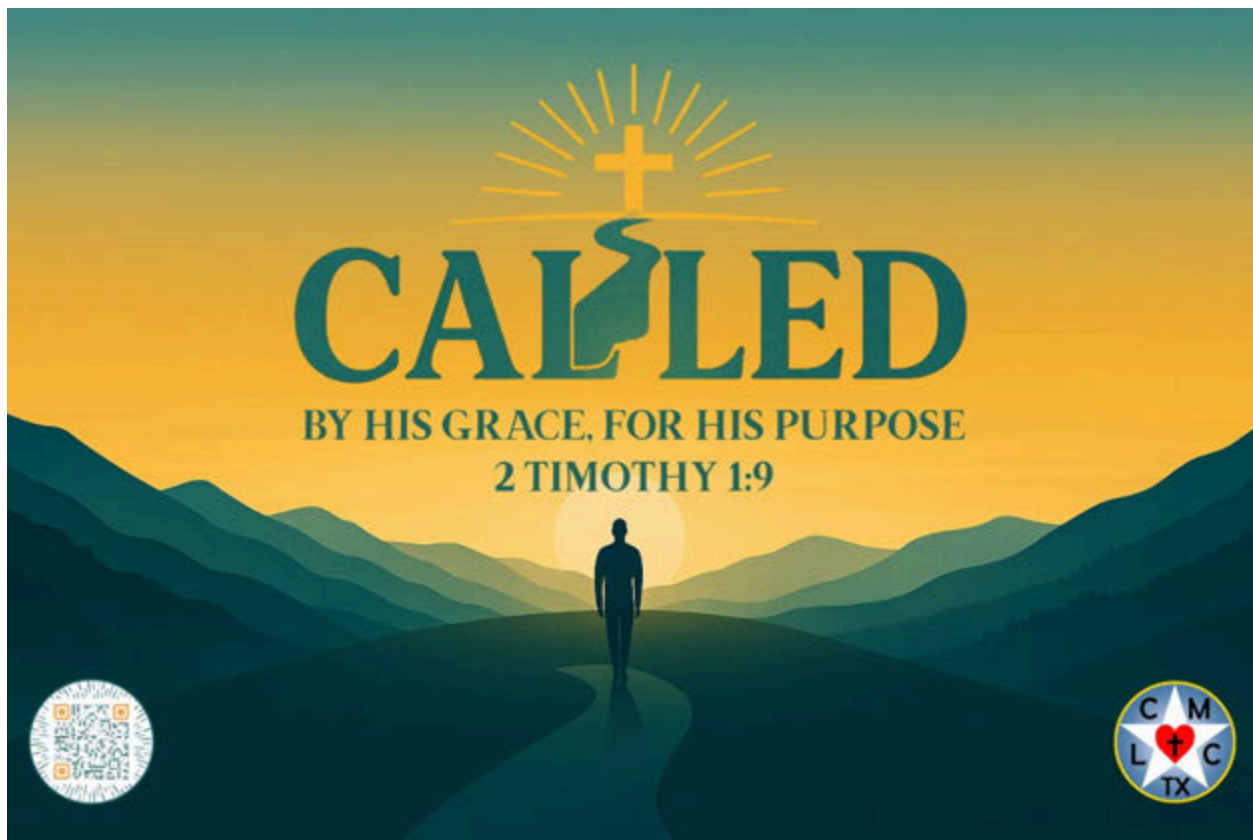

But just seven days later, on the Second Sunday of Easter, I would often wonder, "What happened?" What happened to the joy and enthusiasm? What happened to the crowds and the packed sanctuary? What happened to all that was special the week before? For those who follow the lectionary, the Second Sunday in Easter centers on the story of Jesus breaking in on the disciples who gathered together on Easter evening. After the crucifixion and the discovery of the empty tomb, the disciples were confused and afraid. They had heard the reports from Mary Magdalene, but the fear had not yet become faith. So, they locked themselves in the Upper Room.

And then Jesus appeared. He stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." He showed them his hands and his side. John tells us simply that the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. But Jesus was not only there to comfort them amid their fear and confusion. And he wasn't just there to prove that he was alive. Jesus was also there to send them out. He said it again: "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, I am also sending you." And he breathed on them: "Receive the Holy Spirit."

On Jesus' word, the locked room was transformed from a place of hiding into a place of sending. The peace Jesus spoke did not only quiet their fears, it redirected them with a mission. The disciples who were paralyzed by what happened to Jesus were now mobilized to share the Good News of Jesus to the world. But this is the part of the Easter story that is so easy to miss: The resurrection is not only an event to celebrate; it is the Good News we are sent to proclaim. Just as the Father sent Jesus, Jesus sends us. And he sends us not with our own courage or confidence, but with his peace, presence, power, and purpose.

In Lent we embark on an inward journey of repentance that leads us outward – set free to witness. In Easter, we celebrate the fulfillment of our freedom in the death and resurrection of Jesus. The empty tomb confirms the Good News of sins forgiven, death defeated, and new life in Christ – news too good to keep behind locked doors.
